

I respectfully urge you to reject NAB's petition 04-160. I've subscribed to XM's services because the current local radio stations were not meeting my needs.

XM fills the niche that other radio stations don't, instead of punishing XM for listening to what customers want and trying to fill their need. Maybe NAB and their affiliates should try to do the same: listen to their customers and fill their radio needs.